

2023

SPRING SEMESTER

JANUARY 13, 2023 (Friday, 7:00 pm)

"Shabbat Service at Temple Mizpah"

Cantor Monica Odesky

We will attend a Shabbat Service at the Jewish Temple Mizpah in Abilene. The Temple is located at 849 Chestnut Dr.

FEBRUARY 28, 2023 (Tuesday, 12:00 Noon)

"What Is the Holi Festival of Colours?"

Dr. Sanjay Srivastava, Director, Texas Tech University Health Sciences Graduate Biotechnology Program, will discuss ancient Hindu festivals, including the Holi Festival of Colours.

Church of the Heavenly Rest, S. 7th at Meander, Gerhart Hall

March 23, 2023 (Thursday, 7:00 pm)

"Excelling at Interfaith Conversations"

Anthony Magnabosco, Director, Street Epistemology International, will describe his practice of initiating constructive conversations with people to understand how they arrived at their deeply held beliefs and find common ground.

Community Foundation of Abilene, 850 N. First Street

APRIL 18, 2023 (Tuesday, 7:00 pm)

"Religious Influences in Music and Art in Abilene"

Jennifer Jones, Nolan Kelley, Susie Rockett

A painter, a sculptor, and an oboist will have a panel discussion on the religious influences they experience creating art in Abilene.

First Central Presbyterian Church, 400 Orange St., Minter Room

May 4, 2023 (Thursday, 12:00 noon)

"World Religions and World Peace"

National Day of Prayer Interfaith Observance

Prayers led by participants from our multiple Faith Traditions.

Center for Contemporary Arts, 220 Cypress Street

2023

Our 24th Year

Abilene
INTERFAITH Council

The Abilene Interfaith Council is a non-profit organization of individuals and congregations in the Abilene area dedicated to promoting communication, understanding, and peace among people of different faiths who live together in our community.

P.O. Box 272, Abilene, TX 79604

abileneinterfaith.org

abileneinterfaith@gmail.com

Facebook@abileneinterfaithcouncil

*Program Grants: The Dian Graves Owen Foundation,
First Central Presbyterian Church & Church of the Heavenly Rest*

"Breaking Bread Together in Peace"

