

Program Grants: The Dian Graves Owen Foundation,
First Central Presbyterian Church, Heavenly Rest Episcopal Church

"Breaking Bread Together in Peace"

2023

FALL SEMESTER

SEPTEMBER 21, 2023 (Thursday, 7:00pm)

"Interfaith Engagement: Respect, Relationships, and Cooperation"

Dr. Mark Waters, Linda Goolsbee, Dr. Russell Miller, Anthony Avina

Participants in the August 2023 Parliament of the World's Religions in Chicago will discuss their experiences as presenters of workshops and participants in the world's largest interfaith convening, first begun in the 1893 Chicago World's Columbian Exposition.

McMurry University, Furr Welcome Center (Sayles at South 14th)

OCTOBER 17, 2023 (Tuesday, 7:00pm)

"Practicing Spiritual Disciplines"

Rev. Grace Sosa, Rev. Carlo Sosa-Ortiz, Dr. Angela Nicolini-Starr, Susanna Lubanga, and Ashley Rust

Learn various forms of meditation to experience this essential spiritual expression found in all world religions. Each participant will be able to choose to walk the labyrinth, practice yoga, make a mandala, or reflect through journaling.

First Central Presbyterian Church Garden (Corner of 4th and Beech)

NOVEMBER 16, 2023 (Thursday, 7:00pm)

"Challenges and Triumphs:

The Role of Muslim Women in American Society"

Mona Kafeel, CEO, Texas Muslim Women's Foundation

A presentation and discussion on the experiences and stories of Muslim women in America, from one of the "50 Leading Women" honorees of Plano in 2023.

Location: To be determined

2023

Our 24th Year

The Abilene Interfaith Council is a non-profit organization of individuals and congregations in the Abilene area dedicated to promoting communication, understanding, and peace among people of different faiths who live together in our community.

P.O. Box 272, Abilene, TX 79604

abileneinterfaith.org

abileneinterfaith@gmail.com

Facebook@abileneinterfaithcouncil